

STATEMENT

We, members of the Bokor Base Community, on the basis of Jesus' command to love enemies (Matt. 5:44-48), agree with all those who protest against the war and the increasingly unbridled violence in Ukraine and around the world.

We appreciate the protesters in Russia who are non-violently raising their voices and standing up against the war, risking their personal freedom and security.

We also consider exemplary the self-sacrificing courage of all those who defend their homes and homeland in Ukraine and anywhere in the world unarmed and non-violently.

We pray that their endurance and suffering will not be in vain!
